

K-LOVE radio brings a positive message to every day I listen. It has a positive message that spreads God's word and informs people who need help where to get it. Without it many people will be lost, hungry, alone. It keeps the community united with announcements of events that are free and helpful and fun for everyone. It is better for the public than music about sex, money, and cars.